

Michael Boe

Vice President & General Manager Global Aftermarket, BorgWarner Emission, Thermal and Turbo Systems

Since January 2015, Michael Boe holds the position as Vice President & General Manager Global Aftermarket at BorgWarner Emission, Thermal and Turbo Systems. In this role, he oversees that the company's Aftermarket strategy. Moreover, he ensure that the portfolio of technologies continues to grow and meets the customer's goals.

Before he joined BorgWarner, Michael Boe gained 20 years of working experience at different companies within the technology and automotive sector and held various positions in these fields. He started his career as Sales Manager and Product Manager at Philips in 1995. After various stop-overs, including at Siemens and Delphi, Michael Boe worked as Managing Director Europe for Meritor from 2007 to 2014.

Michael Boe studied Business Administrations at the Copenhagen Business School from 1989 to 1995 and graduated with a master's degree. He is fluent in English, German and Danish.