

Alex Ashmore

Vice President of BorgWarner Inc. and President and GM Aftermarket

Alex Ashmore was appointed Vice President of BorgWarner Inc. and President and General Manager of the Aftermarket on October 2, 2020. He is a seasoned leader with extensive automotive aftermarket experience that spans his entire career.

He joined the company in 2020 as part of BorgWarner's acquisition of Delphi Technologies, where he most recently served as Senior Vice President and President of the Aftermarket, being responsible for leading Delphi Technologies' Aftermarket business, a c.$900m revenue reported segment. . Prior to joining Delphi in 2017, Ashmore was ABB's Senior Group Vice President and Lead Division Manager of the Electrification Division in Asia-Pacific.

He began his career with TRW (formerly Lucas) in 1990, where he held a variety of aftermarket roles of increasing seniority in sales, marketing and product management in both Europe and Asia-Pacific.

While at TRW, he served as head of the company's Asia-Pacific aftermarket business in Shanghai, before assuming the role of Vice President and General Manager of Global Parts and Service business, including TRW's friction manufacturing business.

Ashmore earned a bachelor's degree (Hons) in economics from Manchester University and a CIM Diploma in marketing from Birmingham Polytechnic University.

He serves on the Automotive Aftermarket Suppliers Association (AASA) Board of Governors and is a member of the Investment Committee of Mobillion Ventures.

