

Felecia Pryor

Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer

Felecia Pryor was appointed Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer in April 2019. In this role, she is responsible for all aspects of human resources for BorgWarner employees around the globe, including: compensation and benefits, talent management, labor, employment, social responsibility and internal communications.

Prior to joining BorgWarner in October 2018, Pryor held a number of global leadership roles at Ford Motor Company, most recently as Global Human Resources Director - Global Personnel, Organization & Planning. Before that, she served as Vice President of Human Resources for Ford

ASEAN (Bangkok, Thailand) and Human Resources Director Ford Asia Pacific (Nanjing, China). In addition to her roles with Ford, she held a number of roles with increasing responsibility with Big Brothers Big Sisters, Ford Financial, and Republic Waste Services.

Pryor earned a Bachelor of Arts in criminal justice from Valdosta State University, a Master of Arts in public administration from Florida Atlantic University, and a Juris Doctor from Thomas M. Cooley School of Law. Pryor is a member of the State Bar of Michigan.

Pryor currently serves on the Board of Directors of Lincoln Educational Services, a leading provider of diversified career-oriented post-secondary education.