

Tom Tan

Vice President of BorgWarner Inc.,
President of BorgWarner China

Tom (Yuesheng) Tan is Vice President of BorgWarner Inc., President of BorgWarner China.

He most recently was the Vice President of Transmission Systems and Vice President of Drivetrain Groups responsible for China in addition to his President of BorgWarner China role. Prior to that Tom was the Managing Director of BorgWarner China as well as the General Manager of Turbo and Emission Systems China.

Tom joined BorgWarner in 1995 in and had several management experiences including General Manager for BorgWarner TorqTransfer Systems (China), Asia Controller & Business Development Manager for TorqTransfer Systems (US) and Finance Director for Beijing Warner Gear (Joint Venture) in China.

Tom also serves as Board Director of BorgWarner Asia Co., Ltd. and Chairman or Board Directors of all nine BorgWarner operations in China including three Joint Ventures.

Before BorgWarner, Tom had management positions at United Technology (US) and Shanghai International Investment and Trust Corporation (China) in the areas of program management, business development, international trading and foreign direct investment in China.

Tom holds an engineering diploma from Tongji University in Shanghai and MBA from University of St. Thomas in St. Paul Minnesota. Tom is a graduate of Advanced Management Program from Kellogg Business School as well as other executive programs from Oxford, INSEAD and Stanford.

