BORGWARNER RECEIVES
2014 SUPPLIER QUALITY EXCELLENCE AWARD FROM HONDA JAPAN

BorgWarner's Facilities in Nabari and Aoyama, Japan, Recognized for Delivering Highest Levels of Quality

Auburn Hills, Michigan, March 31, 2015 – BorgWarner's manufacturing plants in Nabari and Aoyama, Japan, were presented with a Supplier Excellence Award from Honda Japan, recognizing best-in-class quality in 2014. This is the second consecutive year BorgWarner has received the award.

“At BorgWarner, we passionately pursue excellence in everything we do. Our long-standing relationship with Honda is a testament to our shared values of quality and innovation,” said Joe Fadool, President and General Manager, BorgWarner Morse TEC. “Once again, we are honored to receive this prestigious recognition and sincerely thank our employees for their dedication and commitment.”

BorgWarner has been producing engine timing chains for Honda Japan since 1999. Today, BorgWarner engine timing chains drive the Honda Fit, City, Vezel, Jade Hybrid and Grace Hybrid.
